- Planning started for the Inspiration Train visit to Hastings in March, followed soon after by the 40th anniversary of the electrification of the Hastings to Tonbridge line. Arrangements and deliverables will be confirmed after a planning meeting next week.

Station Manager Damien Collyer had a plaque especially made for the occasion. SER's Maggie Capps, shown with the plaque, is the connection between us and the family.
- Joined colleagues on a first aid course which greatly improved my knowledge and confidence.

Marshlink Hastings-Ashford International Paul Bromley Line Officer paul@southeastcrp.org

I spent most of this week organising two big line events coming up in the next few weeks.

Rye Harbour Writers have designed the posters for the winners of the Railway 200 poetry competition. Posters are being printed by GTR and will be displayed at the station with a ceremony attended by the winners and their families on 31 January.

I've also been working on the Marshlink 175 anniversary event taking place on 13 February - checking catering costs and design/printing costs.

Good to see the publicity in the Hastings Observer for the Friends of Ore Station for their three CRN Award nominations.

The Penny Ticket

by Linda Wilmshurst

I held my platform ticket tight, that night, in 1942,

Like I held your hand,

not wanting you to board that train

to fight in other lands.

Amid the coal smoke and steam,

The locomotive hissed,

As we held each other for the briefest time

and kissed

Our sad goodbye.

In 1945 I held my platform ticket tight,

Trembling as the train rumbled in.

And then, among the uniforms,

the porters shouts

and tannoy calls,

hardly daring to believe,

I saw you

and my heart soared.

You were home.

Started planning for our AGM on March 12th. Guildford Borough Council have agreed to host which will make travel straightforward.

Spotted this mural by Guildford BC and local youth groups near the station.

Met up with Zach Bailey at Farnborough North; he has joined GWR as Regional Development manager and was previously at Chiltern Railways.

Had a meeting to plan the community mural for the under pass at North Camp Station with local community groups.

I attended a SCRP First Aid Training in Lewes.

Next week I am looking forward to promoting the importance of community rail at a site meeting at Guildford station with Solum, the new station developers together with Network Rail.
